

Please not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

I currently receive practically no unwanted telephone solicitations at my home telephone number. This is wonderful!

The Indiana law is effective. Do not change it.

I really dislike unsolicited phone calls. Indiana has developed a significant process for shielding me from disgusting tele-marketing industry. Federal laws should be at least as protective.